

European Conference on Corporate Volunteering, Zurich 2015
Working Effectively with NGOs

Building HOMES
Building TEAMS

Habitat for Humanity International

Home for All, Hope for All

Leading International Housing NGO

Since 1976 Habitat has opened offices in more than 70 countries.

Habitat homes are central to education, health, employment & economic development of partner families

Helping low income families help themselves by participating on improvement of their home:

- repay a non-profit loan and
- physically participate on construction with volunteers

- ⌞ New homes
- ⌞ Reconstructions/Repairs
- ⌞ Housing microfinance
- ⌞ Construction technical assistance
- ⌞ Education & Integration
- ⌞ Capacity-building and vocational training
- ⌞ Disaster risk reduction & response
- ⌞ Health, Water & sanitation
- ⌞ Financial education
- ⌞ Energy efficiency & education
- ⌞ Sustainable development and Ecological construction
- ⌞ Volunteer Mobilization
- ⌞ Community Building

Volunteering plays a large role in enabling HABITAT to achieve its goals

Building homes internationally...
...and at home

Skills transfer for product use

Cleaning up after disasters

Skills transfer – financial literacy

Volunteering in ReStore

Champions

Volunteering plays a large role in enabling COMPANIES to achieve their goals

Building teams

Engaging trading partners

EMEA Whirlpool LeaderSHEp build

Public image

Creates emotional ties with the company

Aligning business interests

Corporate partnerships

Leadership team

Internal and External PR

CSR

HR

Production units

Challenges & solutions:

case study

Product donation and skilled volunteering

Multi-year, multi-country

Financial donation

Advocacy

Trading partners

Publicity

Challenges & solutions: case study

Local volunteering

Cross border volunteering

Disaster response

Housing Microfinance

Private banking (pending)

Champion's video

Thank you!